GDPR

On 25th May 2018, a new European Union (EU) data protection law, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), takes effect. The GDPR gives individuals in the EU more control over how their data is used and places certain obligations on businesses that process information of those individuals.

To move toward complying with the new legislation, Suncroft Community Development CLG are updating our Policy to take into account the new requirements of the GDPR.

Why we collect your data

It is extremely important that you are aware of the reasons why we hold your personal details, and your rights to the information we retain on you to comply with the new GDPR regulations

You have provided us with your personal information and given us your permission to contact you through both manual and/or electronic means to keep you advised, as a member, of developments regarding Suncroft Community Development (SCD) CLG, or as a subscriber to the Suncroft Text Alert service.

How we collect your data

Data would have been collected when you contacted us – all the data taken is/was necessary for us to supply you with the necessary information to comply with your request.

Sharing your data

We will only share your data with a third party when it is necessary to provide better services to you, an example of this is to give your details to the text mailing company to send you information. Third parties are not permitted to keep or use your data for any other reason than instructed by SCD CLG

Your Privacy

Please note that your information is only held with us for the purposes of providing information and / or a service to you. We treat your data with the utmost care and take appropriate steps to protect it.

If you wish to opt out from our service and the information provided by us, please send an e-mail to optout@suncroftcommunity.ie

Many thanks for taking the time to read our policy and if you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank-you for your continued support.
